Striking Printers.

THE IDEALS DISCUSSED

Several Object' Lessons Analyzed by the Speaker Before an Interested Audience.

At the printers' headquarters, Ninth and D streets northwest, yesterday afternoon, Dr. Alex. Kent, pastor of the People's Church, delivered an interestaddress on the work of labor organzations. There was an unusually large umber of printers present, due to the fact that on Saturday afternoons the ghost walks," and this is always a most attractive feature of the strike

As Chairman Parsons was much pressed in the preparation of the pay roll, Secretary Kidd introduced Dr. Kent to the printers. The doctor was no stranger, for his advocacy of the labor tuse is well known to the working peoole, and when he rose to speak he was

Dr. Kent said he felt honored in be-ng invited to address the printers, and is he had been left free to choose his subject he would speak to them on the great work that had been done by the abor organizations.

"One of the dangers in all great move ments," said Dr. Kent, "Is that we permit the pressing demands of the present to engress too much of our attenion, and so lose sight of the larger ipal justification of organized effort.

"The demands of the present are, indeed, first in order, but we should always seek to meet them in the manner best fitted to guard and conserve the interests of the future." He briefly told how the Constitution of the United States was framed, and pointed out that the framers of that instrument concerned themselves chiefly with the problems then existing.

Growth of Labor.

After giving a history of labor organ izations, showing the growth of labor unions and reviewing the work accomplished by those to raise the problem of today was what to do with the un employed. That was the problem the labor organizations must solve.

At the conclusion of Dr. eKnt's address he was given a rising vote of thanks. The annumcement was then made that the "Ghost" was ready to walk and the men came forward and signed the pay roll.
